SEPTEMBER 1990

Notice is hereby given that the next stated meeting of the Delaware Valley Conjurers Club will be held on Monday, September 10, 1990 at 7:30 post meridiem. This Monday evening we will have a double bill. First, we will have a mini-lecture by Jack Steck on Microphone Use & Technology. Jack knows so much about mikes and stuff because he invented them back in the 1800's. Following Jack will be something called "Unique Presentation Theatre." The idea here is to perform a standard trick, but in a different way - along the lines of a coin matrix effect, when at the end all the coins return to the corners. I know I'm not explaining this correctly, but if you do any magic that is not "out-of-the-book" standard, come Monday night and share it with us.

Start practicing: The Competition Night is set for November. Both close-up and stage contests will be held that night.

Magic News'n'Notes (courtesy of Stan Allen's INSIDE MAGIC) - A lot of magic on TV in the next two months - bear with me..."Rescue 911" will air the recreation of Mike Flosso's fall in a straitjacket on 9/25 - watch if you want...If you are one of the growing numbers of "Peaks Freaks" in the nation, then you'll be watching anyway, but one of the first new episodes of ABC's "Twin Peaks" is supposed to contain someone doing magic. The air of secrecy around this show puts Maxwell Smart's "Cone of Silence" to shame...Siegfried & Roy will be featured in that show of shows, "Lifestyles of the Rich and Famous" in late September...One of the October episodes of NBC's "Quantum Leap" will have a magical theme to it...Miss Mississippi will be doing magic in the talent segment of the Miss America Pageant, assuming she makes it that far. I know I'll be glued to the TV Saturday night...Casino magic: Mark Kalin continues at Resorts in their "Red-hot and Rowdy" revue, and illusionist Franz Harary, Marco Tempest, and Tina Lenert are appearing in "Magic Quest" at 'Arrah's Marina thru the end of the month.

Reminder, part IV: The MAES convention this year will be September 13 - 15 at the Embers Convention Center in Carlisle, PA. For information and registration, contact Pierre Fontaine, 127 York St., Gettysburg, PA, 17325.

Upcoming events at Philadelphia Magic: Danny Tong lecture on Wednesday, September 26 at 8:00 ($5 for PMC club members, $10 everyone else). Also, booked already for the Philadelphia Magic Spectacular II is John Bannon, author of magic's hottest book, IMPOSSIBILIA.

Rumor has it that the Woodbury IBM Ring is having Fr. Cyprian in to lecture, but I don't know where or when. Maybe someone will tell us Monday night (are you reading this, Marc?).

Speaking of rumors, shouldn't there be a Bob Little Super Sunday soon? I haven't been able to get in touch with the Wizardly One, but his next convention should be either late October or early November.

Next Month: October. Lecture by Arizona magician Lee Earl.
