CLUB GETS NEW LOGO !

Well, here it is on the newsletter. How do you like it? After years of discussion, the club has settled on a new logo. We have our newest member to thank for the beautiful job, T. Hunter Gaul. Hunter is now arranging to have letterhead stationary, membership cards, and newsletter paper printed. It gives the club a fresh, professional look.

MAGIC CONTEST THIS MONTH

YOUR chance to take part in the most prestigious magical competition on the North American continent comes at the next club meeting. Yes, that's right, the annual Delaware Valley Conjurers Club contest for Best Close Up and Stage Magician. There are two contests, and you can compete in both divisions. George Reese did last year, and won them both!

Among judges this year will be well-known television personality Chief Halftown. That's right, THE Chief Halftown. Also, noted Philadelphia attorney Vincent B. Corsetti will assist as judge. There will be at least one more judge from outside the club.

This night has always been among the best during the year. Don't miss it. Better yet, be a part of it.

GEORGE HAMPLE LECTURE

"An hour and a half of solid, commercial, usable magic", according to George Spence. The October meeting will be a lecture by well known magician, George Hample. He IS good, and everyone should be able to learn something. To help cover costs, there will be a $3 charge for members, and a $5 charge for guests.

NEW TRICK NIGHT A ROUSING SUCCESS

Maybe it was the "threat" of a 50¢ fine for not performing, but nearly everyone at the August meeting did some magical effect. In fact, the club treasury only received a total of $1 from those who forgot to bring a trick. Among the stars:

JOHN WADE- with an intriguing two deck card effect, a cassette player and amplifier that made a close-up trick into one that could play in a hall.

TREGAR- Put a ring on a rope, then made the ring "melt" through the rope visually!

BOB LITTLE- Back with us after a summer of travelling to conventions. He did a card trick where after the selected card was revealed, he "exposes" the trick by stating that it was done with mirrors. Then he turned over all of the cards and showed that they had mirrors on the back! Another great effect looked like a new version of the Linking Rings, but turned into a real puzzler. Some rings turned into squares, some into triangles, then he counted them all and had them turn into one large ring.

JACK STECK- showed an empty purse frame, then produced what seemed like several dozen yards of rope from it. A great piece of magic for an opener.

ED WINROW- dazzled with card delights, producing aces at will, then changing them into kings.

GEORGE REESE- The MAGIC ICE CREAM PARLOUR's very own weekend magician premiered his new Multiplying Golfballs.

BOB JENSEN- The IBM convention in Norfolk gave Bob the idea for a Zombie-type effect. The ball floated up off the table between his hands. Without a cloth! Very effective, perhaps as a finish to a regular Zombie routine. Bob shared the secret with everyone, Others to perform: GREER CHEESEMAN, HUNTER GAUL, MURRY SALTZMAN, GEORGE SPENCE, CHUCK STINGER
