JANUARY 1986

Notice is hereby given that the next stated meeting of the Delaware Valley Conjurers Club will be held on January 18, 1986 at 7:20 P.M. Rope magic will be the after-business topic, so bring some rope and let's see how many ways we can do the cut-and-restored rope trick. Chairing the festivities will be Jack Steck, Frank Olkowski, and Mark "Rope King" Bruley.

The December meeting was fraught (look it up) with controversy. It was time to elect new officers. Mad-sliding was at a thankful minimum. ABC exit poll interviewing was not allowed, for fear of the West Coast voters not bothering to cast their ballots. After some heated electioneering, the following slate of officers was voted in to run the club for 1986:

President.....Long John Wade
President of Vice.....J. Hunter Gaul, III
Treasurer for life.....Robert Jensen
Corresponding Secretary.....Ed Winkens
Recording Secretary (and all-around nice guy)...Greer Cheeseman

The January meeting will see either the birth or death of the Constitution and By-Laws. Please come and vote on this so we can finally put this issue to rest and get on with the real purpose of the club, which is MAGIC.

DUES ARE DUE. 20 bucks to Bob Jensen and I can guarantee you no nasty-grams.

The Executive Committee (henceforth to be known as the DVCC Brain Trust) has come up with a schedule of events for the coming year. These will be handed out at the meeting, so if you wanna know what's going on, come to the meeting and pick one up.

CONSUMER NOTES: Sessler's bookstore (1808 Walnut, Phila. - 735-4434) has volumes 1 thru 5 of Tarbell's for $50. They're used, but in good shape. If you don't have these books yet, this seems like a good deal to me.....Toys R Us has an instructional videotape of Michael Ammar for $20. It's one of those "magic with everyday objects" type of thing aimed at kids, but for $20, you get Ammar doing magic. Might be a decent buy.....Rumor has it that the next Bob Little Super Sunday is March 9.

A final note: The new year brings with it a birthday for DVCC's resident sage and mascot, Jack Steck. Hard to believe that he turned 89 on January 2, 1986! Happy Birthday, Jack, and many more!
