

International Brotherhood of Magicians
RING NO. SIX

Delaware Valley Conjurers Club

Newsletter

MARCH 1986

Notice is hereby given that the next stated meeting of the Delaware Valley Conjurers Club will be held on Monday March 10, 1986 at 7:30 post meridiem. The night's entertainment will be provided by those few brave souls who have volunteered to perform at the Drexel Hill Magic Extravaganza on April 5th. So far, those committed are: Dave Kelly, Sal Sernania, Greer Cheeseman, George Spence, Rich LaBriola, and Howard Polykoff. It's not too late to add your name to this august list, but if you want to perform for the April 5th show, be prepared to show your stuff Monday night.

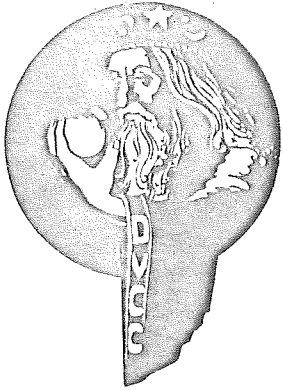

So, you wanna try your hand at being a street magician, eh? Well, now's your chance. The Downingtown Farmer's Market is looking for magicians, jugglers, and the like to entertain in their establishment. They'll give you a spot to work and let you pass a hat. If interested, call Marc at 269-4050 or 878-7908. I checked this place out this past weekend, and it's very similar to the BAZAAR in Clifton Heights, both in layout and clientele. I didn't see any place that would be either conducive or appropriate for performing, but if you're so inclined, it might be worth a try.

MAGIC NEWS 'N' NOTES: Bob Little's Super Sunday is this Sunday, March 9. $12 admits you for a day of fun and frolic at the Fiesta Motor Lodge in scenic Willow Grove...The next David Copperfield special is Friday, March 14. This is the one where he's going to walk thru the Great Wall of China. I wonder, though, if he'll walk thru the wall or dance thru it. Check your local listings for time and channel...Also, Copperfield will be appearing at one of the casinos March 28 thru 30...Marty Martin of Philadelphia Magic Co. has a newsletter out. If you haven't gotten one or know that you're not on his mailing list, call him at 215/627-5128. Marty did ask me to remind you that they still have their free Wednesday night shows/clinics.

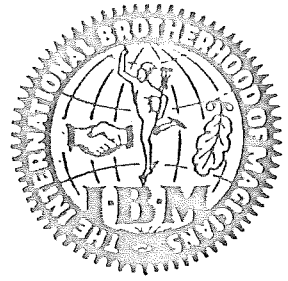

I did warn you - no news, dumb joke. Make me stop.

DUMB JOKE-OF-THE-MONTH:

Husband and wife are getting ready for bed. Wife gets into bed and says to her husband, "My God, your feet are cold!" To which he replies, "In bed, you may call me Herb."

International Brotherhood of Magicians
RING NO. SIX

Delaware Valley Conjurers Club Newsletter

MARCH 1986 - SUPPLEMENTAL

Just wanted to let all of you know what's going on in the next month or so.

Tuesday, April 1st, 7:30 P.M. - Dress rehearsal for the Big Show. Please note - this is a change from what was announced at the club meeting. Performers MUST attend, and technical help would be appreciated. Rehearsal will be held at the Drexel Hill Middle School, State Road and Penn Avenue. That's just up State Road from the intersection of State Road and Lansdowne Avenue, heading towards Springfield.

Saturday, April 5th, 1:30 P.M. - Showtime! Details are yet to be worked out, but I would guess that everybody involved should be at the school by about 12:00 noon. The show will run straight through until about 3:00 - no intermission. Admission will be no more than $2 a person. There is no set line-up as yet, but here is a list of who is going to do what:

Greer Cheeseman.....	to be announced
John Crescenti.....	Sawing somebody in half
Dave Kelly.....	Silks and stuff
Rich LaBriola.....	Passe-Passe Bottles & Die Box
Rich Murrow.....	Juggling
Ken Pfaff.....	Strait jacket escape
Howard Polykoff.....	Funny stuff & Hippity-Hop Rabbits
Sal Sermania.....	Doves and Illusions
George Spence.....	Clowndini (also M.C.)

Monday, April 14th, 7:30 P.M. or 8:00 P.M. - Family Night. So far, we have two confirmed performers - Marty Brunne and Bryan Toder. If you want to perform for Family Night, let me know by the April 5th show.

Personal post script: How many of you were as incensed as I was that channel 10 interrupted the David Copperfield show for a SPECIAL REPORT? It couldn't have waited until a scheduled newsbreak? And they couldn't have timed it better if they'd tried! It's like going to a movie where you're just about to find out who killed the butler and the film breaks. I understand that had we seen the whole routine, when he opens the pocketbook, which, by the way, I am sure will be offered by Hank Lee soon (as seen on national TV), the banana has disappeared.