JANUARY 1987

Notice is hereby given that the next stated meeting of the Delaware Valley Conjurers Club will be held on Monday, January 12, 1987 at 7:30 post meridiem. The evening's entertainment will be in the form of a lecture. Marc "he-who-knows-everybody-and-everything" DeSouza has arranged for Dr. Michael Rubinstein to come down from NYC to lecture us on cards and coins. The good doctor has several books in print and even a few videos. It promises to be another lecture in a series of good ones that we have been sponsoring. Admission: regular monthly dues for members, $8 for anyone else.

Election Results: In the time honored tradition of the DVCC, all slots went unopposed. The following group of ne'er-do-wells will be in charge for the coming year:

President .....	Ed "Close-Up" Winkens
Vice President .....	Mark "Rope King" Bruley
Treasurer .....	Robert "Bob" Jensen
Corresponding Secretary .....	Dave "Commando" Kelly
Recording Secretary .....	Robert Greer Cheeseman III

Competition Results: President ex officio John Wade presented trophies to the winners of the 1986 competitions. The envelope, please ...

Close-Up .....	George Spence
Platform/Stage .....	Howard Polykoff

SEX! SEX! SEX! (I'm gonna talk to you about dues, but I got your attention, didn't I?) Dues in the amount of $10 are due. Pay up now and avoid being publicly embarrassed at a future meeting. If'n you're not paid up by the March meeting, you will be summarily expelled. Where else can you enjoy magical fellowship and witty newsletters for only $10?

Magic News'n'Notes (courtesy of Stan Allen's INSIDE MAGIC) - PBS' "Masterpiece Theatre" will present "Lost Empires" on January 25th and succeeding Sundays. It's about a young man's travels with his illusionist uncle in the early 1900's...Another PBS program, "Square One", will have 5-minute features with Blackstone. These, too, air on January 25 (and I assume on successive Sundays)...Peter Samelson and David Roth will be on "The Robert Klein Show" on the USA cable network Sunday January 18 at 9:00 and again at noon the following Saturday...Copperfield in A.C. February 13 - 15.

Sorry to report that Ed Winkens' mother passed away recently. I know that I speak for the club when I say that our thoughts are with you, Ed, at this time.

Forever Young Dept.: Top hats off to Jack Steck for reaching 90 years of age. Our resident wit (or, as I'm sure Joe Van Hart would say, "you're half right") became a nonagenarian on January 2.

Next Month: February. The DVCC Brain Trust will meet soon to prepare an agenda for the rest of the year.
