Delaware Valley Conjurers Club Newsletter

OCTOBER 1990

Notice is hereby given that the next stated meeting of the Delaware Valley Conjurers Club will be held on Monday, October 8, 1990 at 7:30 post meridiem. This Monday evening we will finish up what we couldn't get to at the last meeting. Jack Steck's lecture on Microphone Use & Technology went on so long that there wasn't time for the other event on the night's program (just kidding, Jack - for those of you that missed it, and you know who you are, you missed a terrific lecture). So, we will once again attempt to put on "Unique Presentation Theatre." Come perform a trick that's just a little out of the ordinary. Mark Bruley's suggestion is doing the Cups & Balls with your feet. If you can do that, or anything else that's a little different, share it with us on Monday night.

Update: For those of you who read these newsletters religiously and devour every word, you may recall that last month's edition mentioned that this Monday would be a lecture by Lee Earle. Mr. Earle had to cancel, and we couldn't reschedule him. But fear not - we've managed to book bar magician Doc Eason for November's meeting. This in turn delays our competition night to the December meeting.

Magic News'n'Notes (courtesy of Stan Allen's INSIDE MAGIC) - Watch for "The International Magic Awards" to be televised sometime between 10/20 and 10/28. There will be awards for a lot of "bests" - sleight of hand, close-up, stage, etc. Only the winners will be announced - no need to embarrass any losing nominees...Casino magic: Mark Kalin continues at Resorts in their "Red-hot and Rowdy" revue.

Attention, bargain-hunters - have we got a deal for you. Dave Kelly has a Zig Zag illusion he's willing to part with for $150. It needs a little work, but if you're interested, give Dave a call or see him Monday night.

The Blackstone Magic Show is scheduled for Sunday, November 4th at the Keswick Theatre in Glenside. There are two shows, at 3:00 and 7:00. Tickets are $18 for adults, $13 for 12 and under. Call 215/572-7650 for more info.

Hopefully, somebody from our club attended the MAES convention a few weeks back and can report on it Monday night.

Since it's almost Halloween, it's time for a Bob Little Super Sunday. Pencil in Sunday, October 21st for this year's fall edition. One of the features this time is Hank Moorehouse. Admission for the day's festivities is $17, but mention that you read about it here, and it's only $5. (The sound you just heard was Bob Little swallowing his teeth - somebody call him and tell him I was just kidding.)

Next Month: November. Lecture by Aspen bar magician Doc Eason.
