Newsletter

NOVEMBER 1991

Notice is hereby given that the next stated meeting of the Delaware Valley Conjurers Club will be held on Monday, November 11, 1991, at 8:00 post meridiem. OK, this is it - no more delays. The contests will actually occur this Monday evening. Dave Kelly has rounded up some real judges, so now all we need are some real contestants. Compete in either the close-up or stage portion (or both). Keep your performance between 5 and 10 minutes, just so we're not there all night. Turnout has been light the past few meetings, so if you show up, you probably have a decent shot at getting a prize.

Reminder for next month: lecture by children's magician and ventriloquist Bob Jepson.

Reminder for next month, part II: what with it's being December and all, I guess we should elect some new officers. Those positions that are up for grabs are: President, Vice-president, and Ring Report Secretary. Jensen and I have been appointed for life, so you can't have our jobs - nyah, nyah.

Jeff McBride is appearing at the Showboat Hotel & Casino through November 28, and is it a bargain. He's doing his hour and a half "Man, Myth, and Magic" show, and the admission is only $10, plus a one drink minimum. Shows are Monday through Saturday (he's off Sundays) at 8:00 and 10:30. Call 1.800.621.0200 for more information.

Philadelphia Magic Co. update: (1) The David Roth lecture/workshop will be Sunday, November 17, 12:00 to 5:00. NO tickets at the door - call to attend. (2) Spectacular III is still set for March 29, 1992, with the following already booked: Kohl & Co., Giovanni (1991 IBM Gold Cups award winner for close-up), Tim Glancy, and Martin Nash. Any questions, call Marty or Danny at 215.627.5128.

Well, we had our Family Night show, and it was well-received. There was a good turnout, and the money we raised we split between the church and the American Cancer Society, in memory of John Wade. The official review will appear in The Linking Ring, but since SO MANY OF YOU MISSED THE SHOW, here's who you missed: George Spence (M.C.), Dave Kelly & Donna, Mark Bruley, Reba Frieze, Joe Donaher, and G. Howard Venderbeck III. The magic was terrific, so shame on all of you who did not bother to attend. The number of performers outnumbered the number of non-performing members in attendance - a pretty sad fact, if you ask me. But, since nobody asked me, I'll get off the soapbox and conclude the newsletter.

Next month: December. Bob Jepson lecture.
