FEBRUARY 1992

Notice is hereby given that the next stated meeting of the Delaware Valley Conjurers Club will be held on Monday, February 10, 1992, at 8:00 post meridiem. A Presidential Edict from newly elected president Dave Kelly decrees that this Monday night will be "Magic with Round Things." You can interpret that as you wish, but I think he means "Magic with Ba..." (I just realized that I probably can't say that in a family-type publication such as this). Anyway, if you have a new and novel way of doing the Cups & Balls, or need some tips on working with Sponge Balls, or have any other round-related magic (coins, rings, Oreos) that you want to work on or share with the group, bring it Monday night.

Election results: I couldn't make the January meeting, so I can't give a full report on the goings-on of the election, but I do have some partial results. Dave Kelly was elected president, and he was apparently so flush with the excitement of winning that he couldn't recall who else got elected. He thinks Aurelio Pontarelli got one of the offices, but he couldn't recall which one. To further confuse issues, Dave will probably not make the meeting Monday night, so it should be a real treat, as we are led into 1992 by the Unknown Vice-President. Should be a ball (pun intended, and if you don't get it, re-read the first paragraph).

Here it is February already, and I'll bet only about a handful of you have paid your annual dues. Just a gentle reminder that $10 gets you 12 issues of the DVCC Newsletter and a spiffy wallet card that identifies you as one of the Philadelphia area's elite.

Philadelphia Magic Company's Spectacular III is on for Sunday, March 29. Here's what's on tap: Lectures by Al Delage (stage craft & showmanship), Giovanni & Tim Glancy (close-up & stage), and Martin Nash (cards & gambling). The evening show will have Kohl & Co. (worth the price of admission alone), Giovanni & Glancy, Al Delage, Double Vision (hot new dove act), Ward Thomas (has done cruise ships, A.C., Las Vegas,...), and Michael Menes (juggler extraordinaire). The full day costs $40, while just the evening show is $10. Any questions, call Marty or Danny at 215.627.5128.

I understand that the club got a nice write-up in one of those local "Town Talk"-type newspapers. A staff writer and photographer attended the January meeting and gave us some good ink. Those of you who got the newspaper please bring your copies Monday night, so that the unfortunates among us who didn't see the article can.

Next month: March - perhaps we'll know who's in charge by then.
