MARCH 1994

Notice is hereby given that the next stated meeting of the Delaware Valley Conjurers Club will be held on Monday, March 14, 1994, at 7:30 post meridiem. Come early for a good seat, 'cause we're going to be treated to a good long lecture. Bill Fitch, King of the Topit, will be spending 2 to 3 hours dispensing his magical knowledge to those assembled. We have it on good authority (Marc DeSouza, He Who Knows Everything), that this is not a lecture to miss. Plus, this is the bargain of the year - $2 for members, $5 for guests. Talk it up and bring a friend - let's have a big turnout.

Speaking of members, this is your last chance to pay your annual dues and become a member in good standing. No $10, no witty newsletters that let you know what's going on, assuming your Secretary doesn't get snowbound. Pay up!

The Spring seems to bring about a lot of magic to the area - read on.

March 20 - Philly Magic Spectacular V. I'm sure this is going to happen, only because Marc said it would, but I haven't seen anything in the magic publications. It will be held at that high school in Overbrook, NJ. I'm sure there will be more info Monday night (a little help, Marc?).

April 10 - the semi-annual Bob Little Super Sunday, Willow Grove, PA. Has the Fiesta been remodeled yet?

April 23 - Magic Expo in Easton PA, sponsored by the Allentown Society of Magicians. $45, Mark Wilson, and the Pendragons. Contact Jeff Stortz at 610.837.9781 for more info.

Usually by this time we would have had elections and a new bored, but we haven't had enough of a turnout in the past few months to hold elections, and there really hasn't been any large hue and cry to throw the current group out of office, and Judge Newcomer threw out all of the absentee ballots for Bill Stinson, so we're stuck with the old bored until we get tired of it.

Best Olympic Joke I Heard, Non-Tonya/Nancy Division: Did you hear that the American women's silver medalist in the downhill had to leave her volunteer job in the Intensive Care Unit at the hospital? Seems that she would answer the phone "Hello, Picabo, ICU".

Next Month: April - time for an auction?
