RING NO. SIX

Delaware Valley Conjurers Club

Newsletter

APRIL 1995

Notice is hereby given that the next stated meeting of the Delaware Valley Conjurers Club will be held on Monday, April 10, 1995, at 7:30 post meridiem. This Monday evening will NOT be a lecture. Prez DeSouza has declared it to be Silk Night. I suspect we'll discuss the care and feeding of silks, and perhaps some good effects with same.

VCR Alert, non-TV division: For those of you who purchased John Mendoza's award-winning tape last month and can't watch it because it's all messed up, bring it to the meeting Monday night and give to Marc. He'll take care of returning it and getting you a good copy. Something about going thru the X-ray machine at the airport too many times.

Magic in the area: Check the papers - the Basin Street Follies at the Showboat in Atlantic City usually has a magic act, but it changes frequently (you expected details?).

I understand that the Philly Magic Spectacular was another success, except for the traffic problems caused by the construction on Route 42. Needed David Copperfield and his flying illusion.

Pace yourselves - there's still a lot happening in our area in the coming months:

1) Bob Little's Super Sunday will be Sunday, April 23rd, at the his new location, the Williamson or Warrington Restaurant (I forget the name). The place is on 611 North, about 4 miles North of the turnpike, not too far from the old Fiesta (R.I.P.). $20 gets you a day of magic, plus the special added attraction of watching Bob be a nervous wreck for about 12 hours.

2) The Allentown Society of Magicians is hosting their 51st Annual Magic Expo, this year featuring Blackstone. The dates are Saturday and Sunday, April 29th and 30th. Along with Mr. B. will be Richard Bloch, Craig Dickson, John Ferrentino, and others. Cost is $65 - contact Jeff Stoltz at 610.837.9781 for more info.

3) MAES 1995 - September 7, 8, & 9 - Lancaster Host Resort. The MAES exists only to host an annual convention - a one-time dues of $10 gets you in for life. Booked so far are Greg Frewin, Simon Lovell, Bob Little, Gen Grant, Beth "Mrs. DeSouza" Sheligo, The Magic Annoyance, and others to be named later. Lancaster is almost close enough to commute, but the Host Resort is a nice hotel, reasonably priced, with plenty to do for those not magically inclined. Register by the end of May and it's only $60. Contact Joe "Pepino" Curcillo at 717.545.2324 for the ever-present more info.

Next Month: May. We'll come up with something.
