

MAY 1996

Notice is hereby given that the next stated meeting of the Delaware Valley Conjurers Club will be held on Monday, May 13, 1996, at 7:30 post meridiem. Prez Marisa has volunteered Ed Schmitt to do a mini workshop on Kid Show magic. Ed will perform and explain a few of his pet routines that he regularly does for children - a rope routine, and a couple of other things he does (yes, Greer is once again working without a net or notes). After Ed's done, I'm volunteering Dave Kelly to tell us all about the Kid's Komedie Klinik he attended (Secret note to Dave: make copies of the notes for us). And for those who think children's magic is beneath him or her ("Moi? Do magic for the little beasties? But, I'm an artiste!"), that's where the money is.

After we've all been enlightened by Messrs. Schmitt and Kelly, The Bored will solicit input as to what you want to do for the remainder of the year. Lectures? Workshops? Rubber Band Magic? Come with ideas and speak up, because if it's left to me, it'll be month after month of "Make Up Your Own Theme" nights.

Upcoming events:

1. Bob Little's Super Sunday - May 19, The Warrington in Warrington, $20. Special Guest Star Appearance: Michael Lair.
2. Dominique Duvivier Lecture: Thursday, May 30, 8:00, $15. One of those Marc DeSouza specials.
3. Other Marc events (he'll have flyers at the meeting).
4. That Big Convention in DC (Magic Summit?).

Did TV just suddenly discover magic? There must have been 4 or 5 magic specials on the tube in the last few weeks. I missed most of them ("Hey, Greer, did you see that magic show on TV last night?" Why couldn't they ask me BEFORE the show aired?), but the one I did see I forget most of, except that they turned a half-hour show into an hour special by spending half the time having the Special Guest Host explain how the crate would be dropped from a big plane with big engines that make a lot of noise and the magician could really get hurt. JUST DO THE DAMN TRICK! Enough with all the histrionics.

Pardon, please, the stationery. I'm at a new job (no more Reliance envelopes), and I can't find my DVCC letterhead. I'm sure I'll find it by the September newsletter.

Next Month: June. Probably a lecture.
