RING NO. SIX

Delaware Valley Conjurers Club

Newsletter

NOVEMBER 1996

Notice is hereby given that the next stated meeting of the Delaware Valley Conjurers Club will be held on Monday, November 11, 1996, at 7:30 post meridiem. This Monday evening will be the ever-popular twin bill of Bored Nominations and Close-up Competition. Nominations should take all of about 2 minutes, which will leave PLENTY of time for the contest portion of our meeting. So start flexing your fingers so you're ready to compete. Yes, it's nice to win, but the fun is in competing. Don't be shy - it's only us. It's not like we're paying customers, or anything.

This just in: there are apparently a few ne'er-do-wells out there who still haven't paid their club dues. You think the newsletter's late now - I'll start mailing out to you delinquents after the meeting (I can hear it now - "How can I tell?").

The following are reruns from the last newsletter, but are semi-relevant and bear repeating. Besides, I'm out of stuff to write about.

Important Note: Ex-Prez Kelly got an Official Notice from the IBM stating that you really shouldn't vote and stuff if you're not a dues paying member of the National Organization. So pay up when you get the renewal form.

Mark your calendars - Bob Little's semi-annual LoveFest will be Sunday, November 17. Same Bat-time, same Bat-channel.

TV stuff: The World's Greatest Magic III is set to air on NBC on November 27. Some of the performers: Brett Daniels, Greg Frewin, David Williamson, and more. Set aside two hours, or go buy a blank tape...ABC has tentatively given some NYC close-up guy his own special to air also in November. David Blaine's his name - must have a GREAT agent.

Next month: December. Elections and Lemon Night - pucker up!
