RING NO. SIX

Delaware Valley Conjurers Club

Newsletter

SEPTEMBER 1996

Notice is hereby given that the next stated meeting of the Delaware Valley Conjurers Club will be held on Monday, September ~~7th~~, 1996, at 7:30 post meridiem. (I'll wait while the shock wears off because you're seeing your first newsletter in what seems like a year and a half). Back? OK, back to the newsletter. The theme for this month's meeting is Lemon Night. No, not tricks involving lemons (although that might not be a bad idea for the next time we're stuck), but tricks you've bought that are lemons. You all have drawers and boxes full of 'em - tricks that don't work (either as advertised or at all), or anything you bought at Chanin's (a reference for those old enough to remember). Root around and see what you can find, and show us what you have. If you have too many, you need to buy more wisely. Added bonus: the tricks you see Monday night will no doubt show up at our next auction, so consider it a free preview.

Also, we will be spending some time Monday evening discussing our upcoming Cavalcade II, which will be held sometime soon. This was a big success last year - see what you can do to help.

WARNING!!! The following paragraphs contains ACTUAL FACTS, as opposed to much of what you usually read here.

Proposed schedule for the remainder of the year:

October	Stage Competition and Auction
November	Close Up Competition and Bored nominations
December	open (for a reason - read on)

December is our "spillover" night - if we get a better offer for October or November (like a lecture), December's event will be whatever we missed.

In the event that you get this in time (don't laugh - it's possible), there is still time to attend the MAES convention. You probably all have received information about it, but just in case, here's the scoop: September 5, 6, & 7 (Thursday night through Saturday). Radisson Hotel in Trevoze (all the way up the Roosevelt Blvd. - 215.638.8300 for directions). 6 lectures, 3 evening shows, a close-up show, contests, dealers, ... $70 for the whole deal, but I believe you can buy one day passes.

Next month: October. Stage Competition and Auction of Lemon Tricks.
