Delaware Valley Conjurers Club

Newsletter

JANUARY 1997

Notice is hereby given that the next stated meeting of the Delaware Valley Conjurers Club will be held on Monday, January 13, 1997, at 7:30 post meridiem. This Monday evening will be "Waste of Postage" Night. Meaning I have no idea what's scheduled - Madame President had no ideas, and Colonel Vice-President is off on maneuvers, or something. So I'm wasting club money on stamps to tell you that we're having a meeting on the 2nd Monday of the month (like we ALWAYS do) to do who-knows-what. Maybe we can kick around ideas for the rest of the year. Nah, that would be WAY too organized.

Speaking of Madame President, she THINKS we're having a lecture next month (see, it's not just me). Jay Sankey is rumored to be the Feature Lecturer. More details as they occur.

One thing I do know is that it's a New Year, which means New Dues. Ten bucks gets you an occasionally timely newsletter and a place to meet on the 2nd Monday of each month (am I getting my subtle point across?). Pay up.

No guarantees, but sometime this year the Newsletter will be available on the DVCC Home Page. So all of you with those fancy new computers you got for Christmas can dial up and see what's going on before the Postmaster lets you know. And since you all got new PC's with that ubiquitous AOL installed, e-mail me with your e-mail address. Save us 32 cents (it adds up, you know).

Next month: February. Lecture, maybe?
