

DELAWARE VALLEY CONJURER'S CLUB
IBM RING NO. 6

SEPTEMBER 2000

The next stated meeting of the Delaware Valley Conjuror's Club will be held on Monday, September 11th, at 7:30 post meridiem. Yet one more in a continuing series of bringing you the best magic has to offer, we are having yet another lecture! Joe Riding will be here on Monday night, teaching all kinds of stuff. This is a repeat performance for us from Mr. Riding (as he lectured for us several years ago), so you figure he has to be good, or we wouldn't have invited him back. $5 for members, $10 anyone else. Oh, and since we're having this lecture, don't be showing up at DeSouza's to see magic tapes, as he won't be there. But if you can get past the security system and Rottweilers, I'm sure you're more than welcome to watch the videos.

If you read down to the very bottom, you will note that next month we will be holding one of our annual contests. I think you need to register to compete, so sign up Monday night.

Still for sale - DVCC logo polos - $25 a pop.

Penn & Teller update, courtesy of Pons: Sunday, 1/28/01 at 7:00, at the Merriam Theater. Members pay $28.00. Only 40 seats reserved as of now, so let us know at the Sept. meeting.

Planning ahead: Bob Little in October or November. MAES is happening (or has happened) as you read this - hope it was good.

Well, my plea of last month for e-mail addresses was less than a whopping success - no one wrote to me (sniff, sniff). Seriously, those on e-mail are getting this several days earlier than those for whom I have to make copies, stuff envelopes, ... So if you have an e-mail address, please forward it to me at musicman@pobox.upenn.edu.

Next Month: October. Close-up Contest.
